Endorsements:Excess:

In common with policies of this type there is an excess. This is the amount you pay in the event of a claim.

For most claims, the excess is £50 and £75 for mobile phones.

For Jewellery and watches the excess is for;

- Items between £1,500 - £4,000 - £250 excess
- Items between £4,001 - £6,000 - £350 excess
- items between £6,001 - £7,500 - £650 excess
- Items between £7,501 - £9,000 - £750 excess

For Contents in Storage the standard excess is £250, and £500 for Accidental Damage claims.

Please check your policy schedule, your excess may vary based on your individual circumstances.

Adjustments:

Please contact Trinity directly if your circumstances change e.g. address, sums insured, and marital status. We shall revise your schedule accordingly.

STATEMENT OF FACT

Important – Please read and check this statement carefully

- This Statement of Fact is a record of the information you have provided
- Your policy and the cover provided will be based on the information provided by you.
- You must take reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to the questions we ask when you take out, make changes to or renew your Policy. If you fail to do so, your Policy may be void, or may be cancelled, or your claim may be rejected or not fully paid. If you are in doubt as to whether you have answered any questions completely and accurately, you should check your records rather than guess
- If at the time of a loss the sum insured is only half of the amount required to fully cover all the property, then we will only pay up to half of the claim, less any excess applicable. Sums insured must be enough to fully cover all the property, throughout the life of the policy including after each renewal. Otherwise a claim payment may be reduced by the application of average.
- If any information is incorrect or is missing you must tell Trinity immediately. Failure to do so may prejudice a claim or invalidate the policy.

I have confirmed the following:-

- Have you or any persons to be insured ever been declined insurance, had insurance cancelled or had special terms imposed by insurers? No
- Have you or any person living with you every been convicted of a criminal offence (excluding spent convictions), or been charged but not yet tried with an offence involving anything other than driving? No
- Have you or any person living with you been declared bankrupt or have any pending county court judgements? No
- Have you or any person to be insured had any claims, losses or liabilities that would have been insured by this policy in the last 3 years. No

Where you have answered yes, details are shown below,

Changes in circumstances

- You must inform Trinity of any changes to the information you have provided about you or your property, including leaving the HM Armed Forces. Failure to notify us of any change may result in the policy being declared void.

Fraud Prevention, Detection and Claims History:

In order to prevent and detect fraud we may at any time:

- Share information about you with other organisations and public bodies, including the police.
- Check and/or file your details with fraud protection agencies and databases, and if you give us false and inaccurate information and we suspect fraud, we will record this. We and other organisations may also use these databases to:
 - Help make decisions about provision and administration of insurance, credit and related services for you and members of your household.
 - Trace debtors or beneficiaries, recover debt, prevent fraud and to manage your policies.

Claims History

Under the conditions of your policy you must tell us about any insurance related incidents (such as fire, water damage, theft or accident).

We may search these databases when you apply for insurance, in the event of an incident or claim or at the time of renewal, to validate your claims history or that of any other person or property likely to involved in the policy or claim.
